555 9th Street San Francisco, California

MAP & INFORMATION

Description:

555 Ninth Street is a thriving urban Power Center of 150,000 square feet. It was SOMA's first shopping center and is home to San Francisco's first Bed Bath & Beyond, Trader Joe's, and Nordstrom Rack. Retailers benefit from excellent freeway visibility and accessibility, and a convenient two level parking garage (351 parking spaces).

Location:

The Shopping Center spans an entire city block on 9th Street between Bryant and Brannan, and is literally at the intersection of 101 and I-80 in San Francisco's growing SOMA neighborhood.
